Jack Frost took snap judgment on a condoning land.

Conscience opened so gently that nobody felt the shock. That may come later.

The orange blossoms hereabouts were a discouraged look at this time, if there were any orange blossoms.

What has become of our national pride, when we clip 20 percent off the wings of our bird of Freedom and call it a whole dollar?

"Here's a how d'ye do"—three English soldiers killed in battle with the other-side of the world. Do the blood-thirsty heathen intend to destroy Her Imperial Majesty's forces?

Does any apostle of sweetness and light, representing "the remnant," raise his plaintive voice to remark that the notorious Jack Sherman has been put in the chair of an Adams, a Jefferson, a Calhoun, a Breckinridge, a Hendricks?

When you speak of it as eighty-cent worth of silver dollar, how absurd it seems. And yet—"most amusing paradox"—the other grains of the peace, which contains 74 grains more of silver, don't pretend to be a "real, right" dollar at all.

Mr. Parnell's first great act in the new Parliament will be to play see-saw with the two big parties. After which preliminary flourish he will throw his hat overboard and do the most good. Mr. Parnell is a very aggravating factor in British politics.

It must make the cold wave play and pranks up and down the Mugwump spine to realize that John Sherman is but one remove from the Presidency of the United States. If President Cleveland were to overlook him with mince pie the Mugwumps aforesaid would fall on their knees and begin to say their "Good Lord, deliver us."

When natural gas fails to come to time on such a day as yesterday, those of us who are obliged to do without it feel that life has some compensations for us after all. But it is to be remembered that the supplying of natural gas is a new business, and that Pittsburgh has undertaken a large delivery of goods without being properly provided to fulfill her contract. All this will be remedied in time, though it will always be prudent to have a little coal on hand for emergencies.

On Saturday next, afternoon and evening, Wheeling is to see in two fine plays one of the best of living actors. Mr. Sheridan plays with a force and finish to be expected only of a highly intelligent, talented and painstaking actor. His Indiana, to be given at the matinee, is a splendid rendition of the role of the massive barbarian subdued by the subtle power of love. It is in Louis XI that he shows the many-sidedness of his power. Those readers of the Intelligencer who have seen Mr. Sheridan in Louis XI will bear witness that it is a performance of the highest artistic merit. The coming of such an actor deserves to be made a memorable event. We may be sure that Mr. Sheridan will do his part.

With Mr. Carlisle's re-election to the Speakership of the House in the Forty-ninth Congress, Kentucky has been thus honored eleven times, first and six times in the person of "Harry of the West"; then came John White for one term, then Lian Boyd for two terms, and now John G. Carlisle just elected for his second term. Next comes Virginia with seven elections, followed by Pennsylvania with five. It is somewhat remarkable that the great State of New York has had but a term and a half of the Speakership, both times in the person of John W. Taylor; and that for full sixty years, notwithstanding her preeminent political importance, the Empire State has not been permitted to furnish the Speaker, though she has lacked neither ability nor ambition.

Two Miners Killed.
Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 7.—An accident occurred in the Hampshire mines near this place to-day, by which two men were killed and another severely injured. A party of five miners were drawing pillars in one room of the mine to let down the roof of coal, and when the mass fell three of them were caught beneath it. Edward Brown, aged 23, and John Sulzer, aged 27, were instantly killed. Charles Sulzer, son of John Sulzer, was so badly injured that recovery is considered extremely doubtful. All are married and have families.

Governor Cameron's Message.
RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 7.—Governor Cameron sent his message to the Legislature to-day. It is devoted almost exclusively to State matters. In the matter of the public debt he reiterates his previous expressions in the endorsement of the Hildegarde bill, believing that every consideration, moral and legal, was met by that plan for funding the debt made in that statute. The amount of the debt outstanding, other than Riddleberger's bonds, principal and interest, to October 1, 1885, is $30,762,282. The Governor recommends a purging of the election laws by the passage of an act making it mandatory that judges of election shall be chosen from both political parties, and that the representatives of the opposition candidates shall be present when the votes are counted.

Let a Fast Life.
TENOHO, Dec. 7.—Commercial circles have been considerably agitated over the dissolution of the partnership of A. R. McMaster & Bro., wholesale dry goods dealers. Ugly rumors were afloat about A. R. Carmichael, the cashier and confidential clerk of the firm. Carmichael left the city on Friday night and is now in the United States. Various estimates of his share in the partnership range from $20,000 to $40,000. Carmichael is said, has been leading a very fast life of late.

A Painting Seized.
CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—A Government Inspector made a seizure of one of Raphael's original paintings, "The Virgin and Child," valued at $40,000, on the ground that the duty had not been paid. The painting was imported from Paris.

OPENING THE BALL.

ABOUT MCGRAW'S APPOINTMENT.

The Elements in the Republican Party That are Said to be Fighting Against His Confirmation.—The Opening of the Forty-ninth Congress.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Inquiry among West Virginians in town developed the fact that there will be a strong fight against McGraw's confirmation. Ex-Marshall Atkinson and Samuel McCorkin arrived here this morning and went immediately to call on Senator Sherman. It is impossible to ascertain what took place, but I am informed they received little encouragement from the Ohio Senator. I believe they represented to him that McGraw's defeat meant a crippling of Camden and therefore a fight would be good policy for the Republican party in West Virginia. A prominent Republican said to-day that it is his conviction the fight is good Republican policy. He will join in it, but in no other event. He said, "If McGraw's rejection simply means the chair of an Adams, a Jefferson, a Calhoun, a Breckinridge, a Hendricks?"

This is the general feeling of all the Republicans here, except, perhaps, McCorkin himself, whom Democrats think is used as a political tool. He is against the chair of an Adams, a Jefferson, a Calhoun, a Breckinridge, a Hendricks?

They charge that he has enlisted the sympathies of a few leading Republicans by urging the Union soldier argument. In speaking of this matter a prominent ex-soldier said to me: "That argument in this case won't stand the test. The records of the Pension Department there about that McCorkin enlisted in Company I, Twenty-seventh Indiana Volunteer, September 1, 1861, as flier, and served ten months. Two or three months after his discharge in 1862 he applied for a pension, alleging that he had contracted a throat complaint blowing the fire. The claim was rejected for reasons deemed good by the Department. McCorkin was 'Every West Virginia soldier known that General Duval, a distinguished Union officer, was replaced by McCorkin about thirty days before Cleveland's inauguration, in opposition to the Union soldier argument of his party. If Sherman can conscientiously champion McCorkin's cause on this sort of a soldier record he will do more than I think he can."

The statement that General Logan will oppose confirmations where ex-soldiers are replaced by non-soldiers without just cause before the expiration of their terms is true, but prominent men of both parties claim this does not apply to the case of McCorkin, as he is not a soldier, the length of time he was to serve being at the President's discretion.

When McGraw's name will be sent in, I find on inquiry that the President will not send McGraw's name into the Senate until after the holidays. It is not definitely known if General Goff will engage in the fight. Some of his friends say he believes nothing would be gained by such a course, as the fight must necessarily narrow down to between the Democratic factions in the State and involves simply a choice between Democrats. Having very strongly favored McGraw, I am not likely to be assisted in any effort which can only result in the appointment of some other Democrat. One Republican says he sees no reason in the fight against McGraw's confirmation, as he cannot secure the place for a Republican; on the contrary, it might result in the choice of a Democrat more offensive to Republicans.

So far as I can learn the opposition to McGraw's confirmation is confined to the State of West Virginia, where McGraw's appointment and the men who insisted on the removal of General Duval against the wishes of nearly the entire party. The anti-Camden Democrats can only give their moral support as they cannot bring any influence to bear on the Senators.

A Lone Convert.
A Third District Democrat informs me that it has been definitely settled that "Windy" Wilson is to be the lone competitor of Senator Camden for the Senate, Lucas being out of the fight. He also thinks there is likelihood that Henry S. Walker is laying his pins to scoop the whole business. At the drawing for choice of seats to-day in the House, all the West Virginia members drew good seats except Gibson. He was among the last and was crowded clear over on the Republican side much to his regret. The West Virginia Senators were the recipients of the handsomest floral compliments in the Senate chamber. Among the West Virginians here to witness the opening of Congress are Editors Torrey, of Fairmont, and White, of Parkersburg. Howard Fleming and John Byer, of Fairmont, J. Wise Norton, of Wheeling, J. W. Cunningham, of Hardy county. Editor White is accompanied by his father, Hon. E. B. White, of Clinch County. Secretary of State Henry S. Walker also arrived this evening.

The Senate Organized.—Resolutions of Respect to Hendricks.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—The Senators were promptly on hand this morning, and for half an hour before noon gathered in friendly groups about the Senate chamber, exchanging greetings and discussing the situation. The galleries of the Senate have not for many years been so crowded on the opening day of the session. The walls of the Senate chamber were draped in deep black out of respect to the memory of the late President. At noon General McCook, Secretary of the Senate, called the body to order and prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Dr. Huntly, after which Mr. Edmunds offered a resolution declaring Senator John Sherman the President pro tempore of the Senate. Mr. Voorhees moved an amendment to strike out the name of John Sherman and insert instead the name of Isham Harris. The amendment was voted down by a party vote, and Mr. Sherman was without division declared duly elected President pro tempore. Mr. Sherman and Mr. Harris both abstained from voting. Upon the request of Secretary McCook Mr. Sherman was escorted to the chair by Mr. Edmunds and Mr. Voorhees, and the oath of office was administered to him by Mr. Edmunds. Mr. Sherman then said:

"SENATORS:—I return you my grateful thanks for the high honor you have conferred upon me."

While waiting information of the action of the House of Representatives the Senate took a recess. At 2:40 p. m. the newly chosen President pro tempore called the Senate to order. The members of the House of Representatives brought a message from that body announcing the election of the Speaker and Clerk and the appointment of a committee to wait on the President in connection with the Senate committee already appointed by the House.

Resolutions of Respect.
Mr. Voorhees then offered the following resolutions, prefacing them with the remarks that in doing so he was performing the saddest duty of his public life.

Resolved, That the Senate has received with profound sorrow the intelligence of the death of Thomas A. Hendricks, late Vice President of the United States, and for a number of years a distinguished member of this body.

Resolved, That the business of the Senate be suspended in order that the eminent public services and the representative virtues of the deceased may be appropriately commemorated.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to communicate this resolution to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Voorhees asked that the resolutions be permitted to lie on the table subject to be called up at a future day, of which the Senate should have due and timely notice. The resolutions were accordingly laid on the table.

Mr. Harris then moved an immediate adjournment of the Senate, "out of respect to the memory of the late Vice President." The motion was agreed to and the Senate adjourned until to-morrow noon.

NORTHWEST STORM.

BLIZZARD'S BLAST CONTINUES.

Jack Frost Pinches the Noses of Chicagoans as Ice Blows—The Disasters on Lakes Michigan and Erie—The Degradation of the Thermometer.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—The frightful gale that swept the lakes Friday night was followed yesterday by another awful and one of most equal velocity, which was still raging this morning. Fears are entertained for the safety of every vessel known to have been caught out in the storm, and it is generally predicted that disasters will be heard from. The wind was blowing fresh from the west yesterday, until about noon when it gradually began to work around to the northwards and increase in violence. By dark a terrific northerly gale was blowing, the average velocity of the wind being estimated at fifty miles per hour. With the shifting of the wind the sea began to wave, and by midnight a tremendous sea had been worked up, the waves landing high into the air and completely submerging the breakwaters in the outer harbor.

The weather was bitter cold and the rigidity of the temperature was made more aggravating by the fierce wind. Furious snow storms swept up the lake in rapid succession, and at times it was impossible to see the end of the piers from the top of the life-saving station. The few vessels arriving reported an unusual severe trip. In each case they were covered with ice from stem to stern, and their crews were worn out from exhaustion and exposure.

The signal service reported the temperature at one degree below zero here at 8 o'clock this morning, while other reports make the temperature from eight to ten degrees below. The weather was bitter enough for all purposes in any event. In many houses the water pipes were burst by the frost. These domestic mishaps were more frequent last evening when it was colder than the night before, and there were very few households but experienced greater or less hardships on account of defective water service.

In the streets the eye beheld the usual mid-winter scene. Street cars were crowded and in the early morning hours very few foot passengers were to be seen. The city was a mass of white, and the purple from the raw air and chilled to the marrow as they sped on to their employment. The Signal Service quoted the temperature at Winnipeg 20° below zero; St. Paul, 14° below; Fargo, 19° below; Dubuque, 10° below.

Howtens on Lake Erie.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 7.—The storm of the past two days has been almost unparalleled in its severity. Old lake men who have been on the lakes for the last quarter of a century say it is heavier than they have ever known. Fears are entertained for the safety of every vessel known to have been out in the gale. The steamer City of Detroit, on her way up from Cleveland, encountered a storm that raked her from stem to stern. Her bulkheads were broken in and the cabin was filled with five feet of water. All the windows and doors in the cabin were broken and the floors floated away. The propeller floated off and the ship was driven ashore. The vessel was damaged and the crew were rescued.

The Storm at Colon.

PANAMA, Dec. 7.—The gale at Colon continues. Last night the sea washed over the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's wharf. Heavy seas are breaking over the wharf, and the reliable information is that the number of persons drowned is at present unknown.

J. Wilkes Booth's Family.

A Son and a Daughter Who Have Lived Under a False Name for Twenty Years.

BOSTON, Dec. 7.—A rumor, credited to the author of a book recently printed at Birmingham, Ala., was widely circulated last night to the effect that John Wilkes Booth, the assassin of President Lincoln, was still alive. A gentleman of authority, who was well acquainted with the widow of Booth, wrote to her, enclosing the newspaper paragraph. His letter brought the following touching reply:

"An item in the Boston Herald has just come to my notice of some unknown person, who was well acquainted with the widow of Booth, who has a desire to see the man who was the assassin of President Lincoln. I myself, saw him buried, saw and examined his body before it was laid in its final resting place. He carried marks upon his body known only to his family and intimate friends. I am sure that the man who has been described in the Boston Herald is not the man who was the assassin of President Lincoln. We all know that the last act of his life was wrong.
